Council to seek aid for smell problem

Altona Council will write to the Minister for Local Government, Mr. Hunt, seeking a subsidy for clearing the foreshore of seaweed, following the recent violent storms.

At the council meeting last week, Cr. Weaver successfully moved that council write to the Minister requesting extra government grants, in view of the recent storm damage which would necessitate additional clearing costs by the City Engineer's Department.

The motion came only hours after Cr. Weaver had been interviewed by a Channel 9 news reporter following complaints by residents about the seaweed piled up on the beach.

Cr. Weaver told council that there were such things as bushfire relief, so why not storm relief?

The motion by Cr. Weaver was seconded by Cr. W. L. J. Crofts who said he had seen Cr. Weaver on television that evening.

"I must commend Cr. Weaver on his remarks," said Cr. Crofts. "The strongest case should be put to the Minister."

Earlier during the council meeting, Cr. D. Grant hit out at residents who had complained to the press about the foreshore.

"The adverse publicity has cost Altona ratepayers money," said Cr. Grant.

"Publicity like this can bring land values down and I would like residents to be pretty sensible about this. We have got to be realistic," he said.

The seemingly-impossible task . . . Altona Council workmen clearing seaweed from the beach.

Two more horses killed on roads

Two horses were killed in road accidents in the Altona, Newport area during the weekend and one rider injured.

- People of song and dance, P. 5.
- Pioneer turns 90, P. 8.

On Saturday at about 6 p.m., a horse ridden by Ian Williams of Ulm Street, Laverton shied and ran on to Queen Street, west of Maidstone Street, into the path of a car travelling to Werribee.

The horse died as a result of the accident but its rider escaped with bruises.

In a similar accident

during the weekend, a horse and its rider were struck by a car at the intersection of Mason Street and Maddox Road, Newport and the injured rider was kept lying on the road for half an hour by an ambulance officers' strike.

The accident was attended by Newport police.

Fish for Cherry Lake

Following a recent petition by 22 residents, Altona Council has reversed its previous decision not to stock Cherry Lake with fish.

At the recent general purposes committee meeting of council, Cr. Les Crofts successfully moved that council approach Snob's Creek Hatchery for supply of fish towards stocking of Cherry Lake.

It is not yet known when the fish will be delivered to council.

The petition to council was signed by Mr. W. Brennan, of Curtin Court, and 21 other Altona residents.

A MENTION must definitely go to that little girl with the big heart who found $37 in Pier Street recently, and handed it in to Altona police. After our article in the Star last week, the money was claimed by a very grateful lady.

TWO YOUNG men, one from Altona, and his friend from Laverton are both very happy to have their licences back.

RONNIE MOFFATT seems too fast a name for someone who drives a Toyota Truck. Nevertheless, Mulga Street's Moffatt gets the message over just as well. If you don't believe us, have a look at the back of Ron's truck next time you see it. It pays to advertise.

MICK THE WILD barber of Somers Parade, hurt himself in more ways than one when he jarred his wrist in a game of football at the Brooklyn Gun Club this week. He could not cut hair properly and had to enlist the aid of his former apprentice, Thomo. Suffice to say that Thomo appreciated the extra income.

Packed gallery

The meeting of Altona Council, last week, was held before a gallery packed with Altona residents. Amongst the distinguished guests were members of the Altona Presbyterian Ladies' Committee, the Directress, Assistant Directress and committee members of the Blackshaws Rd. Mr. Smith meets the Mayor

An Altona resident who used to milk cows on a dairy farm behind the defunct Williamstown race-course, was introduced to Altona's Mayor, Cr. Pat Lynch, at last week's council meeting.

Eighty-six-year-old Mr. Arthur Smith of Civic Parade, a Gallipoli veteran, recently recovered from a serious illness in Heidelberg Repatriation Hospital.

A resident of Altona for 49 years, Mr. Smith was introduced to the Mayor by his neighbor, Cr. Les Crofts.

Cr. Crofts described Mr. Smith as being "86 years young".

"Mr. Smith is a friendly man who always has a smile on his face when he walks past my place," said Cr. Crofts. "And recently I asked him if he would come to our council meeting on Tuesday night."

Mr. Smith was born in South Melbourne in 1885. He came to Altona in 1922 after serving in Gallipoli during the first world war.

After the war, Mr. Smith worked for the Western Districts butter firm, as a driver, for 35 years and served on several progress committees in the Altona area.

He remembers the old dance hall which used to stand in Bent Street, and can recall the time when a mock wedding was staged by two men in the old Altona picture theatre.

When he worked on the dairy farm north of the Pines area, Mr. Smith often walked across to North Williamstown station and caught the train into the city, where he went for entertainment.

When he was introduced to the Mayor, Mr. Smith brought out his first pay book which was stained with perspiration during a route march from Cairo to Alexandria during the First World War.

Cr. Crofts said he and his fellow councillors were pleased that Mr. Smith had shown such an excellent recovery from his recent illness.

Mr. Arthur Smith... 49 years here.

Mr. Gary Howard of Millers Rd.,
Altona, has reported the theft of $500 from his flat to Altona Police.

Reporting the theft, Mr. Howard, a butcher, told police that the money in $5, $10, and $20 notes had been taken from a drawer in his bedroom.

The theft occurred between 7.00 p.m. and 10.30 p.m. on Saturday, November 20 when the thieves entered the flat, apparently by opening a door.

The thieves apparently knew where the money was kept.

Mr. Howard was insured for loss.

ANOTHER HOME RAIDED

Thieves who entered the home of Mr. Robert Bruce in Queen St., last Thursday afternoon, got away with a number of valuables.

Stolen were a gent's Ritex wrist watch, a silver-plated pocket watch, an automatic Winchester .22 rifle, a small amount of money and a number of rifle rounds and shotgun cartridges.

The theft occurred at about 1.30 p.m. on Thursday, when Mr. Bruce was away from the house. A neighbor who heard a noise inside the house, assumed it was Mr. Bruce returning. It was later discovered that the house had been entered. A back door key was used.

'NOT A BRAIN ...

Vandals responsible for recent damage to public telephones in the Altona North area could not have brains in their heads. Cr. Bill Sommers told last week's council meeting.

Cr. Sommers was reporting on a number of complaints he had received from residents, relating to phone box vandalism.

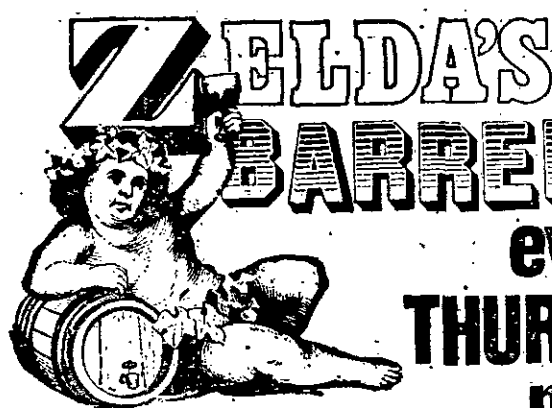

"One cannot be sure whether this sort of thing is a sport or some form of recreation for the small minds of these vandals," commented Cr. Sommers. "They do not stop to think that these telephones may be required in an emergency."

Reporting on his portfolio for social welfare, health and communication, Cr. Sommers added the old style hand sets in Altona phone booths would soon be replaced handsets by the Postmaster-General's Department.

THEY'RE PEOPLE OF SONG, DANCE

Wherever a group of Ukrainian people gather, they usually burst into a song.

And it gladdens the heart to watch the whirl of color and their skill when they dance.

Justly proud of their tradition, they have an active folk dancing group, choir, and theatre company.

Mr. Jaroslaw Hewko, of Percy Street, Newport is director of the Ukrainian Theatre which stages operettas, comedies and dramatic plays.

Mr. Kewko loves the theatre and believes in keeping the Ukrainian language alive.

He said people were discouraged from speaking it in Russia.

"We were treated as second class citizens," he said.

Mr. Hewko, who works as a storeman, said he still feels like a New Australian after living here for 20 years.

"I think it's because when two people apply for the same job, one of whom is a Ukrainian, the Australian gets it every time.

"Even if you know the language, they rather have someone from an English speaking country.

"But it's quite understandable," he shrugged it off philosophically.

One of Mr. Hewko's friends, a doctor of economics, couldn't even get a job as a clerk, although he speaks reasonable English.

"Things like this make you feel you're considered second class to English speaking people," he said.

Mr. Hewko, who left Ukraine at the age of 40 added that Australia is a wonderful country for young people who are educated here.

Mr. G. Vyshnevsky of Killara Street, Sunshine teaches social studies and English at Tottenham Technical School.

Although he left Ukraine more than 20 years ago, when he was 21, he remembers his childhood vividly. "At school the teachers forbade me to go to church and to practice my religion," he said.

"On Green Sunday we used to go to the forest and bring home some branches and a special grass which smelled wonderful to spread on the floor.

"The teachers said it was spoiling nature, which was ridiculous, because we didn't take so much and it grew back.

"You nailed the branches all over the walls around the pictures of saints and this with the scented grass on the floor made you feel as if you were living in the forest.

"And you have to see the beautiful, colored eggs with their patterns we have the night before Easter to believe them.

The Russians did everything they could to oppress our culture.

"Those who tried to rebel, were imprisoned.

"Yet when the Russians took over our country they also took our name.

"Ukraine was the first Russian State and its original name was Russ."

Mr. Vyshnevsky, who has three children finds Australia "a very good country."

He has the characteristic, friendly manner of his people. Even their way of greeting you is warmer than ours.

"Goodbye and God help you," he said, when we left him.

Daddy Cool's live Rock Concert will be aired over 3XY Melbourne tonight.

The live performance will be before a specially invited audience of 80 people.

The concert will be hosted by 3XY's Trevor Smith who conceived and will produce this first, Australasian live broadcast of Australia's top rock 'n' roll group, Daddy Cool.

The Daddy Cool Concert will be heard by an audience of at least three million people. There will be no commercials — it will be a non-stop 60 minute show with the Daddy Cool.

The Sounds of Daddy Cool will travel along 11,000 miles of cable to 13 (so far) radio stations in the Antipodes.

The concert will be performed in the newly built recording studios of Bill Armstrong, in which are to be found the most modern recording equipment yet to be seen and heard in the Southern Hemisphere.

It was only natural that Daddy Cool's rock sound should be heard in the heart of Australia, but 8HA Alice Springs, told us they don't play rock — not even Ayer's Rock.

Parcel problem is wrapped up

Wrapping all those Christmas presents can be a problem — especially when they have to be posted.

This year, a solution is in sight.

The jiffy bag packing and wrapping service, which was introduced on a trial basis in Victoria and Tasmania last year, has been established as a standard facility at about 600 post offices throughout Australia.

In most of these post offices, the service will be in operation for Christmas.

The bags are strong, padded containers, suitable for a wide variety of items.

They can be bought, addressed, sealed and posted on the same spot.

But common sense has to be exercised.

Don't send things like glassware and expect it to go through the post unshattered.

Fragiles should be boxed and surrounded by packing, the post office suggests.

Jiffy bags can be used more than once — in fact, they become softer and bulkier with use.

During the trial period, more than 42,000 jiffy bags were sold.

Only one breakage was reported — a piece of flat glass without any additional inflexible support.

Australia is the only country in the world where the post office has made jiffy bags officially available to the public.

To extend the service even further, selected staff at post offices have been trained as packing and wrapping advisers.

— A GUIDE TO LEISURE

By Peter Vaughan

There was much trepidation during the debate on the new film ratings that with the advent of the R Certificate there would be an open season on cinematic pornography.

If however people did believe the new classification would lead to debauchery then they were very much mistaken if McCabe and Mrs. Miller (Australia Twin) and Percy (Times) serve as any indication of things to come.

McCabe and Mrs. Miller tells the story of the gambler McCabe (Warren Beatty) who arrives in a western frontier town with some very unattractive girls in order to begin a business in prostitution.

The township is raw, vulgar and populated almost exclusively by men and McCabe seems to have hit a goldmine.

He finds however that he is a mere novice in the "business" compared with Mrs. Miller (Julie Christie) who arrives to take over all but the financial side of McCabe's enterprise.

The film centres around these two characters with the town being used as a backdrop for the events which occur.

Unfortunately the film suffers due to this concentration on character because it tends to become a series of disjointed incidents concluding with McCabe's predictable death.

Photography and direction (Robert Altman) are superb and one feels that they almost make-up for the lack of depth shown in the film.

The very topic of this film must have earned it an R rating because apart from a few oaths by Beatty there is very little sex or violence evident.

Percy is a film with a theme which also gave it an R rating.

It is a story of the world's first penis transplant, the doctor who performed it (Denholm Elliott), the man who received it (Hywel Bennett) and the assorted girls (including Britt Ekland and Elke Sommer) who flit in and out of the picture.

It reminds one very much of a bawdy 'Carry On' film where the very plot becomes the basis for all the mildly blue jokes, double-entendres and situation laughs what are peppered throughout.

The film tends to wane in the end probably because the topic has by then been thoroughly exhausted, but in the meantime it does provide a good deal of mirth.

However like the first film, it shows quite adequately that we are still very far indeed from Sweden and Denmark.

SUMMARY: McCabe and Mrs. Miller, Australia Twin 2, 270 Collins St., 63 2837. Percy Times, 283 Bourke St. 63 2121.

The Victorian Society for Crippled Children has appealed through The Star for help to overcome a difficult problem.

One of the many activities provided by the Society is a day centre designed to provide a recreational programme for crippled children.

The society urgently needs the help of voluntary owner-drivers to transport six to 12 year-old physically handicapped children to and from Altona to the day centre at Fawkner Park, South Yarra.

Many of these youngsters cannot use the facilities in their own areas and are dependent on the society's programme to enjoy the holiday period.

The centre is open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. every day of the week from January 4 to January 21.

Anyone interested in helping should contact the Transport Officer on 699 1888.

Happy family

If they get enough votes, they stand to win an all-expenses paid two week holiday in Disneyland with $500 spending money.

The family moves about a fair bit as Alan is in the RAAF.

The birthplaces of the children reads like a list of RAAF bases. For instance, Alan junior was born at Woomera, Colin was born at Amberley, Selma comes from Butterworth in Malaysia, and so on.

They also have a baby, Michael, whom they are awaiting to adopt. Alan's wife, Vivien, takes care of foster babies awaiting adoption and Michael is one of these. So was five-year-old Selma.

A vote for the Windows can be cast anywhere Tarax is sold.

PIONEER TURNS 90

One of the early settlers of Altona, Mr. Thomas Harrington, celebrated his 90th birthday on Sunday.

Mr. Harrington, of Station Street, came from England in 1914 and is believed to be the oldest resident in the district.

He has three children, seven grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

His family made a surprise visit from Emerald. They are his daughter Flo Barnes, her husband Charles, their two children Ray and Eric and their wives and children.

A sprightly man, Mr. Harrington still does his own cooking and housework.

Altona's Chief Health Inspector, Mr. J. Mellors, made the following report on contracts to last week's council meeting:

• Garbage contract: During October, this service continued to operate satisfactorily. The contractor's representative reports regularly each working day to the Health Department to receive notices.

• Sanitary contract: During October, eight complaints were received and an amount of $12 is to be deducted from monies due to the contractor this month. The contractor's representative calls each day to the Health Department and attends promptly to any complaint and requests received.

WIND TAKES HAND IN SAIL RACE

The 30-knot south-easterly which swept up Port Phillip Bay on Saturday played havoc with placings in the third heat of the Williamstown Sailing Club's open championship.

In Division I, national Kitty champion, Rob Ballard, sailing Joy II, held a convincing lead, but Moondog (Alf Stessl) caught the breeze first and almost made up the lee-way in one leg.

However, Joy II picked up speed and held on for line honors in 99 min. 36 sec. with Moondog 2 min. 18 sec. behind second, and Hustler (S. Lanyon) 3 min. 30 sec. farther back, third.

In Division II, the Mirror fleet was bunched for most of the race, but the freshening wind enabled the experienced skippers to take the lead.

Yorimba (C. Brown) was first in 115 min., followed by Mischief (N. Romeril) second, 1 min. 42 sec. behind, with Vicki (W. McKmer) only 4 sec. away, third.

Newport girl breaks record

Swimming for Newport in the final day of the Spring Pennant, Geraldine Murphy in the 100m 12yrs freestyle broke the Australian record for the 10yrs girls event.

She lowered the time from 1.16.6 to 1.14.4 also bettering the Victorian record from 1.18.4 by four seconds.

Unfortunately, all teams were unsuccessful in winning a pennant for the club.

However every competitor bettered their previous fast times.

A special mention must be given to the new team on Saturday morning who finished in the position of runner-up.

The social committee reminds members that on December 19 the annual breakup party will be held at St. Helens park, Geelong.

All members are asked to be in attendance.

Williamstown has the runs on the board to beat Camberwell in a game crucial to the final four chances of both sides.

Williamstown reached a formidable 204, with Noel McLeod scoring a fine 62, and has already dismissed Camberwell's top batsman, Goodenough, to have the home side 1/20 in reply.

Bert Park, promoted from the seconds, opened the batting with Bob Ferris.

Park hit two fours from the first over before being caught soon after.

Robin Dyson joined Ferris and they added runs quickly, with Dyson making 21, and Ferris finishing with 29.

Usual openers Barry McConnell and Alan Harris both failed.

John Peters was scoring freely, but was unlucky to be given out LBW on the second last ball before tea adjournment with the total at 6/127. Peters made 39.

After tea, Don McKenzie and Noel McLeod rattled on 65 in 40 minutes.

McKenzie was caught and bowled for 19, but McLeod carried on in great style before being caught behind for 62.

The innings was quickly wound up for 204.

The formidable Camberwell batting side went in on a fast track and Ray Salter struck a vital blow for Williamstown when he bowled the reliable Goodenough.

Williamstown has the runs on the board and must start favorites next Saturday, but an interesting day's cricket is assured.

Camberwell Seconds batted on a perfect wicket at Williamstown and finished.

Former Williamstown player Roberts scored a solid 63 for the visitors.

Seven Williamstown bowlers sent down a total of 75 overs for the day.

Aths. win to Willy

Williamstown narrowly beat Old Wesley 67 to 65 points in the "B" grade athletic competition at Melbourne University on Saturday.

With only the 400 metres sprint event to go, Williamstown were 4 points down.

Spectators watched with bated breath the struggle for first place between Ian Jackson and one of the competitors from Old Wesley.

Over the last few yards Ian snatched the lead and maintained it to the finish.

Ian's time of 49.9 sec. was a club record.

Third placegetter was Grey McVicar and fourth placegetter was John Handley, clocking 52 sec. and 52.9 sec. respectively.

Earlier in the 1500 metres run John Handley just beat an Old Wesley competitor to win in the time of 3:59.5.

Next home were Barry Wheat (4:9.9) and Fred Howe (4:10.3).

Others to perform well were: Brian Davidson, a distance of 45 ft. 4 in. in the triple jump.

Brian had earlier won the 110 metres high hurdles (16.5 sec.) and was the first Williamstown runner home in the 100 metres dash (11.3 sec.).

Ted Allsop won the 3000 metres walk.

In C grade competition Doug Knight won the 100-metres dash in 11.9 sec., and the 400-metres run in 54.2 sec.

In the 1500-metres, Ray Daniels was the first Williamstown runner home.

Rays' time for the event was 4 min. 23.8 sec.

Theo Delgrosso and Robert Brown were next home clocking 4:24 and 4:31.5 respectively.

Other results: N. Grant 27-15, S. Pilcher 16-26, and C. McDonald 19-26.
